Didan,

you don't think I should learn how to use the Dragon Jewel's power at all?

...yes.

Knowledge is not always a good thing.

Knowledge
is power.

Depending on the user, it can become a powerful weapon.

Or become
the tool of despair like
me.

I don't want to be ignorant of my own power.

I've already regretted it once
before.

I want to learn
all that I can.

if that is what
you wish.

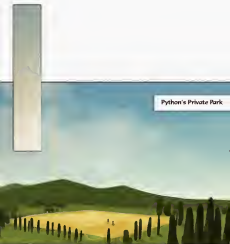

please remember
that I did try to stop
you.

Alright.

BANG!

Python's Private Park

I want to teach you how to use a couple of commands.

A Dragon level's power is unbounded.

but a human being has its limits.

Your words have the power to activate a skill.

I just wanted to let you know that it's possible.

Who created the commands?

The Rhyons creates them and the dragon authorizes their activation.

It is possible
for you to make
one. However,

*Lanemanga

That's quite
advanced so let us
start off with the basics.

Sure.

Please
activate the Dragon Jewel.

While you're in
this phase, you
can transfer your imagination into
the Autumn Fire

using the word "Taka".

Hypnotism
DO NOT ASK

Do you
remember when you created that
glider above
Duduk?

Yes.

How did you do it?

I just thought ..
that if I needed to travel
such a great distance
to reach the quest..

It would be convenient for me to use a glider...

Can you
materialize it
again?

Mmm...

Huh?

I don't know
how I did it.

You probably
felt a sense of urgency
at that moment.

and the surrounding environment suggested
that a glider would
best support you.

Here, we are
on ground level and
you are calm, so it will be more difficult.

Given that
you're in this state,
the "activation"
will cancel itself
naturally.

There is a good
command to use
in this situation.

If you want to cancel or change
it now...

I think she said

Anyone can use it.

However, depending on the degree of corruption,

[During the War of Independence in the 5th year of Kingdom Earthside.]

After the discovery of Tenei by the king
through the whisperings of the earth,
the Labyrinth created a bridge in order
to welcome him.

It was the first Labyrinth to be discovered by humans.

So its value is immeasurable.

Ms. Reana?

The Labyrinth is unexpectedly bright.

It's one of the Labyrinth's mysteries.

It feels similar to the Forest of Mirages, but different.

It's so though this place is full of ominous creatures...

The upper floors are already clear of guardians and Dragon Artifacts, so it is safe.

However, the Labyrinth's inner structure can change from time to time.

This is where we display the Artifacts, destroyed during its excavation and the guardians we defeated.

This Labyrinth creates guardians using
earth and metal.

There are still many of them crawling
beneath us.

Oh my,

What a nice tomb.

That Dragon Artifact must inspire you're from the Strudler family.

If you really are from that robber family I understand. However there is a pretty pretty boy here and here right now.

Your current actions are a breach of our contract.

Is your count aware of this?

Eden Snow, Karin

If he's got that Artifact on him, he must be the next head of the family. I must find out his objective.

Of course

For the one

However, "certain circumstances" 12 years ago added another term.

If I remember correctly, it was that "we will not care for those who are in the enemies' territory."

The others probably know...

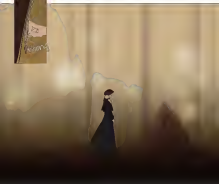

Why do you think there wasn't a single rescue attempt in the Hunter's village?

I see you were not trusted all that much.

What?

The walls of the Labyrinth can only be destroyed using Dragon Armaments.

On top of that, they must've been excavated from this Labyrinth.

Damn it, I can't shake up my thoughts.

Normally, the master of the Labyrinth doesn't allow external forces to act in their territory.

It seems that the child with the Dragon Jewel in his body...

She looked so tired and weary after her combat.

It's all wrapped up and ready to be presented to the king. Thank you for your assistance.

Very pure intention.

Mr. West!!
You're safe!

Thank goodness you're safe, Mr. Rosen!

I got worried so I came down immediately to look for you.

If something had happened to my guest...

Excuse me but Kairuke, the boy who was with me, fell around here too.

Something's happened to our guest...

Can you help me look for him?

Around here? Did you fall together with him?

No, but he should have landed within this area.

It might be better

*Approximately 70 years ago,
at the dawn of the Kingdom's new millennium*

the humans of Dinkles announced their independence from the empire in order to avoid conflict and corruption.

At the time, the rulers of the Dinkles were strange.

*However, they held
no interest towards human affairs.*

With the Labyrinth active, the Kingdom decided to ask the Jirugi for help and they sent two of their greatest contractors

Because the Labyrinth was a new discovery to humans,

experienced Jirugi became an available asset to them.

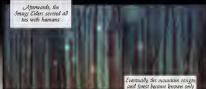

Thanks to these two contractors the Kingdom was able to settle around Dorian Plains and gain their independence.

As promised, the Jirugi were given the Kori Mountains/Langs and the Blue Forest of Orange Arcs to keep closely.

Afterwards, the Jirugi Elders covered all ties with humans.

Eventually the mountain ranges and forest became known only as a place where Orange Arcs gather.

How long did he tell you to block the entrance for?

Until he comes out.

He said it'll take quite some time.

Report to me if something happens.

Yes, m.

That's Colonel Kamata, right?

This... former prince's aide.

I'd heard the former prince was quite reasonable as he approached his end.

Abide
in the Wind

The upper floors all have a similar design, but it feels different here.

Why is Kairaki down here ...

Dalry, you told me that Kairaki was the last dragon on this planet, right?

So as far as that goes, that might not be the case.

Where?

300 years ago
excluding mother
muriel and lord kaiser,
all the other dragons
did leave this planet.

however, mother
muriel was mentally
unable at the time.

although she did say
that she would leave before
lord kaiser matured.

i did not see
her old with my own eyes.

Does that mean Katriel's
mother might still
be on this planet?

even if she was, i doubt she could be the cure.

i cannot say with
the utmost certainty

but we should not rule
out that possibility

on top of that, if the dragon can no longer
return to their species

the business will not despise in the absence
of a pure dragon jewel.

since the dragon
jewel is in your body,
it is possible that lord
karak cannot escape
it on his own.

what we can try
(as a plan) is...

that lord karak
chose modern means...

and that the dragon
jewel you carry
is pure and full.

please believe
in yourself

Alright, I'll
definitely find Karak.

It might just be me,
but Dylan seems a bit kinder.

He always used to keep his distance...

Well, I like having conversations like
this, even if it's short.

It's not

It is

It isn't

Ed is

She's looking for the dragon.

She's looking

There it is her

Get the hell off.

Weird.

It's different from
before.

Her speech is all
over the place.

It's almost like she's talking to someone.

It seems like
she's unstable.

If she's a parasite,
then she's using the Dragon Lord, right?

It's dangerous, but
I want to find out.

Activated

Stop! Stop!

There's a danger here!

"Warn me"

"Explain."

"Explain."

"Explain."

That's right!

But the cat is angry.

...It's too much.

It's too much

Then what?

Let's go back

What?

If you can be silent

There's no reason to talk to her if she isn't
a parasite.

Let's find Kaitoko.

You can't go alone.

*You are already
in my domain!*

Who are you?

I am Murdock,

a dragon, and
the owner of this Labyrinth.

A dragon? That's cool.
For good or bad?

Why are you doing this??

Are you holding Kairak captive?

Why do you spare life
with that little dragon?

Because of that dragon
and his servant, you lost
something important.

*"You are filled
with love,*

and love...

and all these confusing emotions

But to what end?

You a Vain Lady. No.

*and create

Become one with me.

*Accept me as your

...You are no

*If you are a dragon, then you should have a Dragon
Jewel as well*

Let me leave.

*or I will force my way
out.*

This shouldn't be it

We've finally met a human!

*We don't have a place
to escape.*

It's because of that young dragon.

We can just get rid of him.

Kill the dragon!

No!!

Kairak!!!

Come back to me!!

*Kairak!!
Are you okay?!*

*Are you hurt
anywhere?!*

I was able to come back...

because Diana
called me.

"Thank you."

look!
over there!

An orb fragment?

you mustn't
touch it.

look! over
there!

An orb fragment?

you mustn't

if my assumptions
are correct... that is a fragment of mabe's

if the two
dragon jewels came in

have no idea what could happen
it's a ticking time bomb

but look kuroki

to use his overwhelming
strength to handle it safely however...

Mummy... That's
Kuroki's mother, right?
What kind of bad things
do you...

I heard about what happened to mabe...

I was wondering why
those guards were stronger than usual.

but to think there
was a dragon jewel's
fragment lying around here...

You're
saying we should
just leave it here
and go?

yes, we have no

*I've splitbed over, so I won't harm you Please,
lower your weapon*

Who are you?

I'm simply a fraction of the consciousness that Akumajiki has split into

I'm the part of Muzan,
who also looked to her Reign, and the one
who wants to save her

You may call
me "Akaza".

The one you saw
earlier is the one who wants to lead her to her own demise

I call her "Michiko".

Muzan tried to cleanse
her own corruption for a long time.

That resulted in the two of us

*since we naturally
disappear over time.*

Then you should be fine staying here.

*Why do you want
to come with us?*

MOUNTAIN DRAGON

Dragon:

*have their father let
us show the respect they deserve with humans*

I am an incomplete creature. However, I was able to connect with you through Kaurak

I ended up
discovering that you are the one who brought us to the world's end.

A magical dragon can handle fragrant life safely,
after all.

Utsu Hime and Wistaria

Thus, the current me
needs to go with you.

Is this too difficult
of a request?

I understand
that you don't mean
to harm us.

But I don't know
what you're talking about.

Why do they have their futures set
when they interact
with humans?

In that case,
shouldn't 'not interacting' with
humans also change
the future as well?

It is a system that
"creates" used to create
these future.

Yes... That's why they all decided to leave...

Have you seen it?
The "future" that may have set for you and your dear one?

The future? This isn't a dream, so there's no way I could've seen something...

You have.

*That's the future
you have created.*

That's Katrak's future?

We'll take another stride to disappear.

but Ichikawa's influence is growing stronger

*I can still suppress her for
the time being...*

*but if she grows
too powerful*

*she'll cross the line and interact with
a human to become
a "parasite"*

Parasitoid!!

*When Katakuri
watches, he'll be able to truly free us*

That's why you need to take us with you.

*Are there no
other parasitoids?*

*After I was able to let many of myself
I'm always here*

I'm sure that's why I'm here. I'm sure that's why I'm here. I'm sure that's why I'm here.

*However, we don't know what happened
to Shirogane.*

She should be very much unhappy, now that she's frustrated by it.

*That's what a body
is already showing from holding the dragon
jewel.*

*even if we wanted
to take you along, it's impossible.*

*I'm just a fragment,
so I won't find a human vessel.*

Something wonderful...

Oh, that Japanese
Sweet and suffer

The way I'm affected
even if I never find,
even I'll just sleep

If you strongly
believe in me,

I'll be able to help Kakurou in such
a better

So these are the fragments that Kakurou's
mother left behind...

I'm back at the start again.

When Kairaki
matures, can the both of you leave this planet as well?

"Leave", yes.

Sorry, Vero.

Alright. Let's go together then.

Thanks!

*I am nice speaking
you. Deku*

*I'll get you all
in the burning
future*

Pii!

Let's go back
to Ms. Karin.

I wonder if
she's resolved
everything with
the Count...

Huh?

is this a side effect of
his "calling" him

...he's at a
growth stage

Is that so?

Together from here...

*Separating the way
would be better*

BOOM

BOOM

Humans and brags
aren't supposed to care
for each other.

Despite that, there is still a condition set, stating that those in the enemy territory
will not be cared for.

You told me that a "certain incident"
twelve years ago led
to their condition
being set.

It's as you say.

I don't have much
trust from the Elders.

Well, they always rejected my proposals
from the start, so it became a habit for
me not to tell them
anything.

Ah, don't get any closer.

You should know
about the "distance
you need to keep
from women" in the Kingdom.

I've heard that this "Lyn" was quite skilled...

and that she
was popular in the
human world,
especially with
the younger generation.

That's her concept picture.

So...

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a purple dress, is running through a dark, industrial environment. She is carrying a large, dark, rectangular object. In the background, there is a large, dark, rectangular structure with a face-like shape on it. A red and white striped object is visible on the left side of the frame.

It will be far more beneficial for...

the "Kingdom"
to eliminate you
quickly.

It becomes a "Core"

If you merge it

But even holding onto
the Core is excellent

If you use the

It's a medicine like no other.

You can't save yourself

Only those with a weak mentality will get Mind Corruption.

Lucky me.

I can change this thing as long as I have the System by my side.

(It's pretty neat, isn't it?)

It's similar to the "Light" the Akopem use, but it's different.

Oh right, you can't speak anymore.

Now that you've you'll

Abide in the Wind

Episode 3 • Labyrinth of the Ancients

Story • Art

Shun Wad

However, 12 years
ago, the prince she had been protecting...

was relieved of
his royal status due
to an unfortunate
accident...

Isn't the prince...
the leader of the Darton
Expedition?

I saw him not too long ago...

Isn't he perfectly fine?

Fine...?

I'm talking about the tired
prince.

Prince Lorian.

No, that's the fourth prince of the kingdom...

Love
Hate
Love Hate
Love
Hate

I have seen
three more?

That's quite
a lot...

12 years ago
Prince Lorian had his status removed

I remember it
was in a small corner
in some newspaper

However the Prince's status doesn't hold much meaning in this kingdom, so I never really gave it much care...

Black eye....!!

The mind altering drug that Dragon Knights take. Hardly anyone knows about it.

Afterwards, she was hysterical, and those feelings left over made her bitter over the years.

Please, save her.

It's definitely not something you come across everyday.

I won't be able to obtain any information through the Kingdom or the military...

If we revive that Dragon Knight, we might be able to use him.

Reverting a human that's already turning into Blackstone...

may be possible if we use "Purify," but I don't want to cut my life short...

It's as that Alchemist says

Only you can save that Dragon Knight, Lady Asuna.

Doesn't the Dragon Lord restore the missing portion of her life, anyway?

This is true punishment
in this universe

That's true... however,

madam
must please
think this through carefully

purification
isn't something to be used lightly

it's a power that transcends life and death

even though you used
it on accident in the blue
forest of mirage beasts

you should only use
it for humans

you may destroy
the balance of this world if you use it on any passing human

thus, let us erase
this skopon's memory
and move on

Kainak, what do you think?

Asking a Dragon something like that holds no purpose
if they were a man
that cared about others in the first place, why would I bother trying to make that human girl my tool?

...Reana...

you should do
what you want...

Robot
problem.

He's only responding since
his keywords asked
him.

Foreboding crimson
spells...

It's like a parasite!

I'm not sure
if I'll succeed in what I'm about
to do...

but...

I'll try my best.

To be honest, I already made my decision the moment
I saw her like that.

Blackdome...

A phenomenon
that occurs when Mind Corruption for contractors reaches an absolute maximum.

In this situation, I wouldn't think twice about saving even a single life.

I didn't consider my own wellbeing, either.

Needless to say,

I didn't think about
Kairak's, either.

If I had...

cared a bit more about his feelings...

If I understood why...

he had to do so...

I wait...

drowning...

I made ~~my~~ appearance!

**Remember that the Dragon is always the son of the Dragon Lord!*

but you really don't learn, do you?

My job?

...Still, he didn't have to pinch me.

What does he
mean by my 'job'?

A life is...

another world.

If you do not
find out the exact
cause...

you will be swallowed whole.

Mind corruption is a simulation that can also be called...

"No kill your own self".

We need to trace back to the start and the quest...

Kaneta, 17

Look at this!

A drawing?

He's got peridot-colored eyes, just like the king!

Oh, this is my brother.

He's got such sharp eyes for his age.

Don't you think he's handsome??

Ahh, I need to hurry and find time
to go on a vacation
as I can go with

Your button has become undone.

Just leave it—

A prince must always look presentable. Please adjust your uniform.

Fine. Konata...

are you a second semester?

Yes. I graduated last spring and attended
the ceremony.

I could've
transferred to another location...

I heard you
received the title
as a Dragon Knight
as well. That's incredible...

Congrats

but I wanted to say by this person

This is sympathy. Plus
old sympathy.

It's been three years since the 10th expedition began.

The Akoom have reduced in numbers.

According to this record, more than half of the villages have been annihilated.

They keep wanting more slaves.

but what can we do about something that doesn't exist?

I just think about it sometimes.

Instead of being dependent on slaves all the time, it'll be better to start industrializing to lessen our workload.

Industrializing.
But won't it require more manpower for the production of machines?

Currently, yes,
but once we make
technological advances,
don't you think it'll
require less people for management?

Then, we'd reach
a time where we won't need slaves
anymore.

We wouldn't need to go on any more of these expeditions, either.

Sir Lorian,
look over there!

The Rhoom grow twice
as slow as humans

Often, they get overworked as a child...

and die before
reaching adulthood

A trap?
Does it set up
by illegal slave
hunters?

There are also... small groups that hold
prisoners captive.

I don't want to capture
children.

Second Lieutenant Kumeta.

There was an empty building in the last village,
right?

We'll be leaving
this area soon, so
let's leave these
children.

They have a distinctive way of feeding each other, so they'll meet up with adults
soon enough.

If it is an order,
I must record this.

No. It's a request.

because I trust you.

I wonder if this is enough

They are...?!

Oh my—

Oh my;
my, my—

Tom Merchants
Woke Tom

It's Lord Second Lieutenant Kamata,
our precious
supplier.

Lord Mitsu,
what is the meaning of...

I heard you've collected young slaves
for us. We were ever so touched.

It's the military's duty
to supply us with slaves, is it not?

Our second lieutenant is a loyal soldier.

That person
instead of me...

Come with me.

I'll save you
from that fate.

I was wondering why
you were so late...

I'm your guardian. You mustn't follow
anyone else's
orders!

Those god-damn
people keep thinking
about how to see an Abbot as soon as they
see one...

Where did Prince
Lexion go?

After I got his
signature yesterday,
I haven't caught a glimpse of him.

Are you Captain Kameta?

Yes?

Due to an incident
in Red Rock Passage, Prince Lexion has been relieved of his royal status, and has been imprisoned.

Until they decide
what to do with you,
they've issued orders
for you to stay in
your house.

Also, after our investigation, you'll be summoned to see if you were involved or not.

What is the meaning of this?!

It's an order from the higher ups.

CELESTIAL

His pupils are dilated and Blackbeard is starting to show on his skin.

He's in the final stages of Mind Corruption... There's nothing we can do about it at this point.

He's practically a dead man now.

What the hell happened...?!

My, my...

I wouldn't know about it,
either.

I would absolutely
love to be able to help you.

However, how could I possibly have any information...

on the Dragon
Knights when I am but a simple
monk?

I must've been out
of my mind to come
to this man..

I'm sorry for taking up your
time.

Although he's at the final stages of Mind Corruption.

I've heard that taking a mind-enhancing drug called "Black Eye" ...

might be able
to extend his life
a little longer.

It's a new drug that's never been tested before

but we can obtain some if you put in a request

I've been called to attend, so I can no longer supply slaves to you Attend? I'm sure there's far more valuable objects over there.

Dragon Artifact smuggling!

I hear Prince Loden
has not been in good health lately...

What will you do?
